

Troopers Attempting To Locate Robbery Suspect Angelique Banks

Wilmington (19802)- The Delaware State Police are seeking the public's assistance in attempting to locate 50-year-old Angelique D. Banks (photo 2008) of Bear, DE who is wanted in connection with a robbery.

The incident occurred on March 22, 2019 at approximately 8:10 p.m., when Troopers were dispatched to the Big Lots, located at 4439 Governor Printz Boulevard for a report of a robbery. Upon arrival, Troopers met with two store employees who advised that a female had entered the store carrying shopping bags. The female proceeded to select household goods and conceal them in her bags. Upon the suspect attempting to leave the store without rendering payment, the employees verbally confronted the female. The suspect continued to exit the front doors when she displayed a holstered handgun in her waistband and announced she had a gun. The store employees were able to follow the suspect to the parking lot, where they observed her enter a Black Dodge Durango (pictured) and flee the scene.

Through investigative measures, Troopers were able to identify the suspect as Angelique D. Banks. Troopers have been unable to locate Banks who currently has active warrants for two counts of Robbery First Degree and a previous warrant out of Troop 6 for shoplifting.

Anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of Angelique D. Banks is asked to contact Troop 2, Detective G. Rash at 302-834-2620. Information may also be provided by calling Delaware crime stoppers at 1-800-TIP-3333 or via the internet at <http://www.delaware.crimestoppersweb.com>
